

Nebraska Foster & Adoptive Parent Association
Foster Parent In-service Training

In-Person Training
Or Virtually

Indian Children: Culturally Connected, Rights Protected

Free Training!

Trainers: Misty Frazier, MA,
& Liz Lovejoy Brown

Training for foster, guardianship and adoptive parents!

Learn more to help the children in your care.

Attending this training you will learn more on:

- Historical Trauma and the affects we treat today
- Historical Implications of ICWA - Why ICWA?
- What is ICWA?
- Cultural Communication
- Working with American Indian/Alaska Native Population
- Medicine Wheel Model

1517 Broadway
(in conference room)
Scottsbluff, NE
Or Virtually

Date: 09/26/2020
Time: 9:00 am-5:00 pm
Lunch on your own

Register online at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/Inservice2020>

or call the office at 402.476.2273 or 800.257.0176

Participants will receive up to 6-CEU's.

For those not interested in attending in person, please register to attend above and check you will attend virtually! We will then send you a link.

NOTE: Participants will need to watch a video before attending class.

Sponsored by Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services
Facilitated by Nebraska Foster & Adoptive Parent Association